

John Patrick Reddy

*Chief Financial Officer
Spectra Energy Corp*

Pat Reddy is Spectra Energy's chief financial officer. He leads the financial function, which includes the controller's office, treasury, tax, risk management and insurance. He also serves on the board of directors for DCP Midstream₇ LLC, a joint venture between Spectra Energy and ConocoPhillips and a leader in natural gas gathering and processing and the production and marketing of natural gas liquids.

Reddy joined Spectra Energy in January 2009. Prior to his current role, he held the position of senior vice president and chief financial officer with Atmos Energy Corporation. He joined Atmos Energy in 1998 and prior to his appointment as chief financial officer served as vice president of corporate development and as treasurer for the company.

Before joining Atmos Energy, Reddy was vice president of planning and advisory services for Pacific Enterprises, a California-based holding company whose primary subsidiary was Southern California Gas Company.

Reddy holds a master's degree in business administration from the University of Southern California and a bachelor's degree in political science from the University of California at Los Angeles.

Reddy is a member of the American Gas Association's Leadership Council and has served on the board of directors for the Dallas Symphony.

Spectra Energy Corp (NYSE: SE), a FORTUNE 500 company, is one of North America's premier natural gas infrastructure companies serving three key links in the natural gas value chain: gathering and processing, transmission and storage, and distribution. For nearly a century, Spectra Energy and its predecessor companies have developed critically important pipelines and related infrastructure connecting natural gas supply sources to premium markets. Based in Houston, Texas, the company operates in the United States and Canada approximately 19,100 miles of transmission pipeline, more than 285 billion cubic feet of storage, as well as natural gas gathering and processing, natural gas liquids operations and local distribution assets. The company also has a 50 percent ownership in DCP Midstream, one of the largest natural gas gatherers and processors in the United States. Spectra Energy was recently ranked by FORTUNE as the world's "most admired" pipeline company. For more information, visit www.spectraenergy.com.
